

Friday Night Association 2019

Columbus Academy

The Wellington School

We are embarking on the 51st Season of the Friday Night Association (FNA)!

children the opportunity to learn social skills for dances in a relaxed, fun and social atmosphere. All 6th grade students from Columbus Academy, Columbus School for Girls, and The Wellington School are invited and encouraged to attend.

FNA was developed to offer our

FNA consists of 4 evening dances. Please note the first dance is scheduled on a Thursday (no school the Friday after) and the next three are on Friday evenings. Students receive instruction in both ballroom dancing and appropriate social behavior at the first 3 dances. The students then get a chance to practice their skills at the final dance at Columbus Country Club. Please refer to the schedule below:

FNA offers a fantastic opportunity to throw the uniform aside and dress-up! Please note, this is not a prom or formal event (save limos or salon makeovers for high school!) and a new outfit is not required for each evening. Please refer to dress code outlines below:

Dress Code
Girls	Nice dress, skirt or pants and blouse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> no strapless dresses, tank tops or heeled shoes skirt / dress length no shorter than 4" above the knee
Boys	Dress shirt and tie with khakis or dress pants (suits & jackets are optional and welcome)

Ron Clark from DancePlus Ballroom in Grandview will return as our instructor again this season. Ron encourages and enjoys having the parents observe the classes. We will be sending a signup for 6-8 parent chaperones for the Columbus Academy and Columbus Country Club dances. If you are available, please sign up to join.

The cost for FNA this year will be $46.00 per student. This price includes dance classes, season ending dinner and great door prizes! If cost is a participation factor, please feel free to contact your parent representative for accommodations. The cost of $46.00 is for attending any or all scheduled events. Conflicts are expected, no worries if your child will miss one or more of the scheduled events yet still wants to participate.

Please send payment of $46.00 per student NO LATER THAN FEBRUARY 1ST to Cari Kass via:
